Admission: 33 euro/triplette including a lunch (barbecue).

Location:

športno društvo Zarja

Linhartova cesta 47 a

1000 Ljubljana

A lot of activities will be held during the day while waiting for your match to begin. On one playground there will be competition for best shooter and best pointer. Since morning we will also have prosciutto ham, which will be hung on the rope and you will try to guess the height of it. The one, who guesses the precise height, will take the whole prosciutto home. through the day music will be playing and draught beer will be available.

After the competition there will also be a party on the same location. We will have DJ, called GREG GORYK.

*Our petanque section is called Žabci (Frogs)

The reason is actually a funny fact. Other citizens of Slovenia call all people from Ljubljana frogs, because their were a lot of swamps in the past. So we just took the name and never looked back.

Very important fact about our location is that it is close to the city center.

The city center is decorated with cobblestone streets, a hill-top castle, beautiful building facades, nice public spaces, and other things that mostly typical city of its size in Europe has. But one thing to die for is to enjoy a drink on one of the riverside outdoor cafes in a sunny afternoon.

This badass dragon is the symbol of Ljubljana. They are guarding the aptly-named dragon bridge.

Formerly, Ljubljana was a Roman settlement, called Emona. You can still see their ruins scattered in the city. Legend has it that the city was founded by Jason (the Argonaut guy). He killed a dragon in nearby river, thus the symbol dragon.

If you're into these things, another part of Ljubljana that worth a visit is Metelkova. It's a squatter-haven turned a public art. In the complex, there's a hostel that was a former prison. They transformed cells into rooms, each with its own design.
